REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES AND LIBRARIAN OF THE GRIFFIN PUBLIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM.

The report of the state library commissioners shows that one hundred and thirteen towns in the state have complied with the provisions of the state library law, and now have public libraries, besides many other towns which have libraries through the benevolence of their former citizens. Those sons of New Hampshire who wished to help their native towns were probably convinced that they could do more good with their money in that direction than in any other.

These libraries prove to be a three-fold benefit to the towns morally, intellectually, and financially, if proper books are furnished. Time used in reading good books not only aids the mind to acquire knowledge, but prevents such time being wasted or put to a bad use. Whatever attracts strangers here to spend the summer months with us is a financial benefit. Our library and museum have in the past proved to be highly appreciated by them, and with such additions and improvements as may hereafter be made we have no doubt will increase its attractiveness. The library being closed while the addition for museum and other purposes was being built, prevented as large a number of books being taken from the library as last year, otherwise it has been well patronized.

The trustees intend to make an addition of quite a number of volumes in the near future.

It became necessary to expend more on the building than the appropriation, as it could not well remain in the condition it was when that was expended. It will be necessary for the town to make a still further appropriation in order to comply with the conditions of Mr. Griffin's gift to the town.

When we hear the praise bestowed by citizens of other places, even some from large cities, upon the Griffin museum, we feel that Auburn has something that perhaps no other town in the state can boast of, and that her citizens may well be proud of.

Respectfully submitted:

WILLARD H. GRIFFIN,
DANIEL H. WEBSTER,
WELLS C. UNDERHILL,
Trustees.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

This is my third report as librarian of the Griffin Free Public Library, and in making this report I will say, that books have been taken from the library room quite freely by the citizens of the town.

The library was closed nearly two months during the year, while repairs and additions have been made to the building, and painting done to the outside. About one thousand volumes have been registered and taken from the room, and have been returned. Quite a large number of books have been taken by summer boarders and visitors. This indicates that the chance to get reading matter is appreciated by them while here with us.

The books mostly called for are fiction, although history and biography are quite freely taken. Poetical works do not receive much attention.

Donations of books to the library by individuals have been made during the year by Mr. John F. Patten, Mr. Page S. Griffin, Mrs. George P. Clark and Miss Kate T. Clarke, and a few by others have been made. For all these donations thanks are extended.

As we have intimated before in our annual report, greater care should be observed by those who take books from the library, that they are not soiled, or torn, or by hard usage that the leaves are not started from the binding.

SEBASTIAN S. GRIFFIN,
Librarian.

Auburn, N. H., February 16, 1895.

SCHOOL REPORT.

To the Citizens of Auburn:

We make the following report of the school work for the past year:

Number of children between five and fifteen years of age, enumerated April 1, 1894, 106; boys, 48, and girls, 58.

Number not attending school in this district, 11; boys, 5, and girls, 6.

Number not attending school in the district two weeks during the year, 11; boys, 5, and girls, 6.

Number over five years of age attending school in the district over two weeks during the year, 120; boys, 56, and girls, 64.

Number under five years of age, attending school, 2; 1 boy and 1 girl.

We do not know of any in town between fourteen and twenty-one years of age who cannot read and write.

We believe all the teachers employed have intended to do well, according to their ideas of what was required in school work.

Each of the teachers seemed to excel in some respects, while in regard to other things there was room for improvement.

We have intended to select teachers because of their apparent fitness for the work and when we were satisfied that we had made a mistake we endeavored to correct it.

We have been very sorry to lose some good teachers, whose plans were such that they could not continue here.

To secure the best results the parents and friends of the scholars must help and encourage the teacher in her work.

At the close of the school meeting members of the retiring school board informed us that the school books needed to be newly labelled.

We examined the books and decided to attend to the work before the schools commenced in the spring. It made considerable work and extra expense, but it will not need to be done again for several years.

The No. 7 school house has been shingled with cedar shingles, the blackboards in all the school-houses have been painted, and the usual slight repairs have been made.

Some of the school houses need to be painted, and some of the foundations need to be pointed, so as to save fuel and add to the comfort of the children.

Respectfully submitted:

FRANK B. COULT,
KATE A. HALL,
MARY A. HARVEY,
School Board.

MANCHESTER, N. H.

In presenting this advertisement to the CITIZENS OF AUBURN, and to the readers of this report we wish to state, and not in a boisterous way, that during the last few months we have nearly DOUBLED OUR STORE SPACE, ADDED A VERY LARGE STORE HOUSE, with railroad facilities direct to the door, at a large SAVING OF EXPENSE, and more than doubled our stock, and are now in a position to serve our patrons with goods from the LARGEST ASSORTMENT, and AT PRICES THAT NO SIMILIAR HOUSE IN THIS CITY OR NEW HAMPSHIRE and but few in NEW ENGLAND are able to meet, CHAS. A. HOITT & CO., Manchester, N. H.

REMEMBER: We furnish a house complete from cellar to attic, and Wall Papers, etc., etc., with a Stock Second to None.

Please compare the Chamber Suit we offer for $20 with other dealers at $25.00.
Our parlor suits at $22.50 with others at $30.00
Our Extra Super Carpets at 50c. with others at 65c. per yard.
Our 4½c. Room Paper, with Matched Borders, with others at 6c., 7c., 8c., and 9c.
Our Side Boards at $9.00 with others at $15.00.
Our Dinner Sets at $6.50 and $7.00 with others at $9.00 and $10.00.
Our Quaker Stoves with all other makes.
Our Lounges at $5.00 and $7.50 with others at $8.00 and $9.00.

From your own experience, if you will stop to consider, you must know it is utterly impossible for a dealer, only dealing in Stoves and Tinware, a dealer of Wall Papers, an exclusive dealer of Carpets, or a Furniture dealer, who buys his Upholstered goods and buys from Manufacturers in the East, to compete with MANUFACTURERS and WHOLESALE and RETAIL DEALERS and a concern having such an unlimited line to sell from, and where business is always good.

Your observation of customers in other stores in our lines, and compared with those you will see in our different departments, ought to convince you we have the Right Goods at the Right Prices.

☞NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS.

We would be pleased to have you go through our store (up-stairs and down) regardless of being in need of our goods, it will certainly surprise you, and you will say, I really had no idea of the enormous quantity of room and goods, and that they were doing such business.
